

Regional Working Conference on Wittgenstein
Virginia Tech Philosophy Department Spring Conference
2007

Thursday, April 12: Hawthorn Suites, 1020 Plantation Rd., Blacksburg, VA

8-9:30pm. Heather Gert (UNC, Greensboro): "Wittgenstein on the concept of a rule"

Friday, April 13: Hawthorn Suites, 1020 Plantation Rd., Blacksburg, VA

8:45-10:15am. Miriam McCormick (U. of Richmond): "Wittgenstein and necessary beliefs"

10:30-noon. William Brenner (Old Dominion U.): "Wittgenstein's 'Kantian Solution'"

Lunch for participants

2-3:30pm. James Klage (Virginia Tech): "The Redeeming Word: 'Genug'"

3:45-5:15pm. Susan Sterrett (Duke University): Wittgenstein and Aeronautics

Dinner for participants

Saturday, April 14: Torgersen Hall 1000, Virginia Tech Campus

(8:45am. Meet in hotel lobby to drive to campus.)

9-10:30am. David Cerbone (West Virginia U.): "Wittgenstein and Idealism"

10:45-12:15. Meredith Williams (Johns Hopkins): "Wittgenstein's Paradox of Consciousness"

Lunch for participants

2:15-3:45pm. James Peterman (U. of the South): "Wittgensteinian Thoughts about Moral Particularism"

4-5:30pm. Christopher Hoyt (Western Carolina U.): "On the Very Idea of a Third Wittgenstein"

(5:30pm. Drive back to hotel)

(7:30pm. Meet in lobby to drive to reception)

Conference Buffet/Reception: Hillcrest Hall, Virginia Tech Campus

7:30-10:30pm. All invited.

(rides back to hotel as needed)

Sunday, April 15: Hawthorn Suites, 1020 Plantation Rd., Blacksburg, VA

8:45-10:15am. Duncan Richter (VMI): "Did Wittgenstein Disagree with Heidegger?"

10:30-11am. Final Thoughts: "Tell them I've had a wonderful conference."

All presentations are open to the public.

The Hawthorn Suites can be easily reached by Blacksburg Transit. Take the Hethwood bus from campus and get off at the first stop on Prices Fork Rd. after the overpass for 460. It is at a traffic light for Plantation Rd., and there is a Texaco station on the right. The hotel is just behind the Texaco.